Luna Space Station was built by James Luna, billionaire and philanthropist. He built this as a status symbol to prove that he could. He always has an alternative to every plan he has and this was an entertainment platform. The offices/buildings are listed below from top left to bottom right. The "tube" is two stories in height and has buildings built inside of it. Some businesses having living accommodations for the owners in the back or on the second floor. Starships and System ships do not dock inside this space station but, on the outside. Each of the two docking hubs has three docking collars (the black circles picture above). These hubs also contain: communication antennae, solar panels, fuel and supplies (for life support).

1) Administration Office - All ship Captains are to report here with their manifests. They will be asked about their purpose and duration of stay. The charge for docking is 50 credits per hull size, per day. Most ships use a shuttle or dock, unload crew/passengers and then orbit the station until it is time to depart, then they pick up the crew/passengers.

The Admin Office also contains the Space Station Security with four security teams. Each team consists of 4 Yazirians (STA: 35, RS: 45, IM: 5 M: 50, RW: 45 Rage: 15% Equip: Albedo Screen, blue Civilian Skeinsuit, Power Beltpack, Electrostunner and Sonic Sword). The Watch Commander is Kaal Hast (Yazirian Male). There are barracks in the rear of the building.

There is a cross-walk that goes from the second floor to the next building - the Tourist Center. Outside there is an elevator and a walkway that both go to the opposite side of the station.

2) Tourist Center - The purpose of this center is to highlight all the facilities and services available at Luna Space Station. M'Xaie is the customer service representative here (Vrusk, Female).

3) Hallway/Market - This hallway leads to the rest of the space station. Some of the habitants set up little tables/stalls here to sell tourist items or provide services. Here are two stalls selling minor statues, shirts, etc. One stall is for D'noob Dakal. He is a Dralosite Shuttle Pilot. He offers his services here when he is not working or soliciting beers at a local bar.

4) Van's Storage - This area is a pay-for-storage area. A 1m.x1m. space can be rented for 5 cr. per day. Failure to pick up your items at the end of the contract can result in your possessions being confiscated. A service robot provides customer service here.
