

Use this diagram to record your speed. To resolve speeds:

If the speeds are directly opposite, subtract the smaller from the larger.

Otherwise, reduce the speed farthest from the direction the ship is pointing by the ADF points spent. Half of those points (round down) are added to the direction in between the other two speeds.